

92 POINTS FROM DECANTER FOR 5 FINQUES

We are pleased to announce another great score for Perelada's 5 Finques 2016.

Those of you who are familiar with 5 Finques from Perelada may not be surprised to hear that this wine has been rated 92 points by Decanter in the May issue.

This wine continues to earn a stellar set of scores from the world's most well-respected critics and the 2016 vintage already has 95 points from Mundus Vini and 93 points from the International Wine Challenge. Impressive stuff!

PERELADA 5 FINQUES RESERVA 2016 92 Points

"A seven-variety blend, aged for 18 months in American and French oak for a toasted, sweet cedar character. Black-fruit, plum and mint chocolate aromas, silky berry attack on the palate. Velvety tannins, cassis, leather, spice, great with hearty meat dishes."

DECANTER, May 2021

To view the technical sheet for Perelada 5 Finques, please click here