“THE ARGENTINE WINEMAKERS WITH STAR APPEAL”

We all know what a fantastic winemaker we have in Karim Mussi, his wines are incredible and his different brands encapsulate his new way of thinking in Argentina. From his Abras wines in the north, to Qaramy from Valle de Uco and his exceptional Alandes project, we admire his approach and we love the wines.

We were delighted to see him featured in a recent Wine Enthusiast article by Michael Schachner; “The Argentine Winemakers with Star Appeal.”

If you haven't read it already, you really should check it out!
