New Wine Enthusiast score for Casa Gran del Siurana

We are pleased to share with you a brand new score for Casa Gran del Siurana. Their Cruor Priorat 2018 has just been rated by Wine Enthusiast and awarded 91 points.

The wine was tasted and scored by Mike DeSimone:

Casa Gran del Siurana 2018 Cruor Red (Priorat)

"A bouquet of blackberry, raspberry, milk chocolate and crumbled sage paves the way for black-cherry, Mission fig, anisette, bittersweet-chocolate and dried thyme flavors. Tannins start off light, build in volume and then linger into an enduring finish."

91 Points

We have a limited amount left of this superb vintage, so please contact David or Eymeric to secure your order.

This Cruor reflects a very specific terroir at Casa Gran de Siurana. La Fredat, in Bellmunt del Priorat, is a terraced vineyard which optimizes the cultivation of each grape variety taking advantage of the different orientations of the terrain. Each vine is cared for almost individually.

A blend of Cariñena (48%), Garnacha (42%), Syrah (10%) Medium to long maceration and 14-16 months ageing in French oak casks, some of which are new, combine to create the personality of this wine.
