

Perelada gains new recognition from James Suckling

We are pleased to share some great news from Perelada; Finca Garbet 2019 has been awarded 92 points by James Suckling.

The result comes from James Suckling's 2024 Spain Tasting Report where he has reviewed the most distinguished wines to emerge this year.

James Suckling is known for applying one of the most demanding criteria in the industry, evaluating wines using his renowned 100-point scoring system, making his rankings a worldwide reference. This achievement for Perelada highlights the quality of this wine and once again reinforces their capabilities in the international arena.

FINCA GARBET 2019

"A rich and flavorful red that has aromas of roasted herbs, paprika, balsamic and stewed cherries. It's full-bodied, broad and intense, with savory herb and pepper undertones to the ripe and baked fruit."
