The Wine Independent is a "fiercely independent" wine publication, launched by Lisa Perrotti-Brown MW, ex editor in chief at Robert Parker's Wine Advocate. Perrotti-Brown MW left her enviable position at The Wine Advocate after 13 years, to set up this publication which aims to "return to the high ethical standards initially championed by Robert M. Parker, Jr. back when he started The Wine Advocate in 1978."

The Wine Independent project was co-founded by Lisa and Johan Berglund, a photo journalist and the team promise to always be independent, completely unbiased, and 100% on your side. At TWI, there are no backroom deals and no premium subscriptions, just honest reviews that empower you to make the right choices at the right time.

They also promise to entertain you with a steady stream of rich and uplifting content to bring you insights into the people and places behind the wines you love, their hardships, histories, struggles, and successes.
