ABOUT SAM'S CREEK

They say wine is a mirror of the place and time it came from, either through climate, geography, season, or pure inspiration. Burbling contentedly through the Cowslip Valley Vineyard, situated in one of the Southern Valleys of the Marlborough region, is a small, but charmingly enthusiastic waterway: Sam's Creek. It's a place of peace and energy, restoration and of course inspiration for this deliciously sustainable range of meticulously crafted wines; vibrant, tropical and expressive with the crisp acidity that consumers around the world have grown to know and love. Sam's Creek may be small, but it packs a mighty punch.
