BACKGROUND

This wine is part of a Triad of Malbecs - along the Andes- of well-defined character, manifesting different interpretations of those singular vineyards that have captivated Karim over the years. This wine comes from a range of high altitude vineyards, from those unique sites that captivate and inspire Karim to capture their essence. This 100% Malbec seeks to reflect the nuances and identity of the Uco Valley.

WINEMAKING

Fermented in small concrete vats. 70% aged for 10 months in French oak barrels.

TASTING NOTE

A very succulent and fresh wine with good tension between fruit, acidity, and fine tannins, giving a handy, long finish.

ABOUT ALANDES

Alandes, (word combination of "Wines from Along the Andes") is one of Karim Mussi's projects, who along with his partners, found a beautiful old winery, to develop new brands and styles without the restrictions of producing wines from grapes of/from a single terroir. Every label of Alandes is driven by an individual concept, that represents absolute freedom, a "Laize Faire" winemaking philosophy that is spread in an extensive territory without boundaries.
